

The True Value of TRACE Membership

We understand that compliance isn't always an easy sell internally and budgets are constantly under scrutiny by senior leadership and boards. Being a member of TRACE signifies a company's commitment to good corporate governance and anti-bribery compliance which can help foster a culture of transparency.

Our shared-cost model helps companies maximize budgets by pooling resources and thereby reducing the time and cost associated with risk management. Membership benefits are structured around the main components of an effective ethics and compliance program, and include:

- Standards, Policies and Procedures
- Training and Education
- Monitoring and Assessment
- Continuous Improvement

Standards, Policies and Procedures

- Compliance program starter kit for companies new to compliance
- Model policies and procedures for all industry sectors and compliance maturity
- Guidebooks, checklists, and white papers to help navigate the evolving compliance landscape

Training and Education

- Award-winning multilingual eLearning covering the full spectrum of compliance and governance topics – from anti-bribery, human rights, and sanctions to AI, data privacy, and workplace ethics
 - Customizable content addressing the compliance topics that matter most to global organizations today
 - Extensive supplementary materials library including games, guides, videos, training aids, memes, vignettes, podcasts, and more - designed to reinforce learning and keep compliance top of mind in between training cycles
- TRACEpro, advanced compliance training and professional development (available in English and Spanish) for compliance professionals and staff who are regularly exposed to compliance risk
- Webinars featuring experienced legal counsel, corporate compliance leaders, and industry experts – to keep your team current on the latest enforcement and compliance trends
- Multilingual Learning Management System (LMS) available in 39 languages, 24 hours/day - supporting seamless deployment to employees and third parties worldwide
 - Choose your language at course launch with our built-in language menu
 - Compliance Arcade featuring interactive games and exercises that reinforce compliance learning, accessible from within the TRACE LMS and via mobile devices

Monitoring and Assessment

- Risk assessment guidance and checklists to help establish an internal framework
- Annual country bulletins, country bribery risk profiles, local law summaries, gifts & hospitality guidelines
- TRACE e-Gov Portal, a comprehensive collection of links to country-level e-government services and resources of interest to businesses and their employees

* All TRACE courses in core languages (English, Chinese [Simplified], French and Spanish) comply with WCAG accessibility standards.

Continuous Improvement

- Access to compliance professionals and thought leaders for practical guidance on best practices
- Global events to provide in person training for employees and third parties and opportunities for peer-to-peer conversations and benchmarking
- Knowledge base to keep legal and compliance teams fully informed of regulatory developments, compliance risks, and what's considered best practice

TRACE members pay an annual membership fee and can extend benefits to all employees, including first-tier wholly and majority-owned subsidiaries. Enterprise plans allow benefits to be extended across all tiers.

Estimated Market Value*
US$650,000
Standards, Policies and Procedures	US$50,000
Training and Education	US$400,000
Monitoring and Assessment	US$100,000
Continuous Improvement	US$100,000

Standard

Corporate Membership

US$18,000

LEARN MORE

Enterprise

Corporate Membership

US$25,000

LEARN MORE

Interested in TRACE membership?

Contact us: info.TRACEinternational.org/membership/contact-us

* Actual value of membership depends on usage of benefits.